THE SUNLIGHT OF A RUSSIAN MIDNIGHT.

Hon. Ellis H. Roberts, the editor of the Utica (N. Y.) Herald, who is making a tour of Europe, thus writes of the evening and the night at St Petersburg:

All the world of St. Petersburg drives out upon the islands at night, and gathers upon "The Point," where the land looks out to the north and the Gulf of Finland, to honor the sun at its setting. The hour was 9:30, and no cloud obscured the royal orb. A broad line of orange ran along the horizon, in which the sun floated, until it gradually settled down as into an ocean of color. The orange became paler, changed to amber and then to yellow, and the whole sky was flooded with it, when finally it grew cold and metallic. Before the sun set, a rose-pink suffused the waters away out to the mouth of the river and the far-off gulf. Then it darkened into purple, and finally shaded into a grey, hard flint. So we saw the sun set again, off Basil Island in the Gulf of Finland, but then less color prevailed, and only shades of orange-yellow appeared on sea or earth or sky. The sun in neither case went down with decided movement as it does with us, but rather faded and sank as an exhausted old life may flicker in its socket. The rays grow cold and weak. The shadows fall. The sensation is strange, to have the sun shine and material objects seem not to intercept it, for the light is the same back of them as on either side. For a long while before the shadows cease, they gradually diminish in distinctness. The pencil is dull for limning. In its absence, one discovers the light and shade and learns to admire more than ever the mastery of Rembrandt.

At half-past 10 the rays of the sun already below the horizon, were playing on the pinnacle of St. Peter and St. Paul. Young people were delighting themselves with games of graces in Alexander park. At 11 the windows had not lost the day's reflected light.—It was a cool twilight, June and October struggling for the evening. No sense of lateness prevailed. Women and children were alone in the street as at mid-day, and while the shops are closed, diligent search discovers only two or three artificial lights in the long blocks of occupied buildings. These words are written just as the clock strikes 11, and the cross of Our lady of Kazan is yet tinged by the sun, which is wandering only just beneath the horizon, far away to the north.

The night becomes no darker; at 12 and at 1, a person may read coarse print in the streets, and before 2 o'clock aurora tints the morning sky. The experience is unique, for one may almost refer to the Scripture text and say here is no night. Something mysterious, wonderful because unknown, appears to be in the air. It is not the absence of night which will make heavenly but the weariness which longs for night will not be there, for even light may become a burden, and the day may extend itself to a monster. The good people of St. Petersburg are happy in their situation, and in this long, bright night, they are celebrating a fete in honor of Peter the Great. We met them, not long before 11 o'clock, going in crowds, by carriage and by boat, and on foot, to Petrovski island, where Punch and Judy were performing, and games were in progress, and fruit and eggs and bread and beer were for sale and mirth and jollity went hand in hand with good order.

HOME, FARM AND GARDEN.

—Sugar Cookies.—One and a-half cups sugar; half cup milk; a small half cup butter; one egg, one teaspoon cream tartar, half do. soda; half a cup caraway seed. Mix pretty well, cut into small cakes and bake.

—Oatmeal Porridge.—Soak six tablespoonfuls of meal over night in a pint and a half of water, in the morning stir it well, and set it in a pail into a kettle of boiling water, and let it boil hard half an hour; then add a cupful of milk, and let it boil fifteen minutes. Season with salt, and eat with cream and sugar.

—Potato Bread.—Take six good-sized potatoes, boil and mash very fine. Add three pints boiling water. Stir flour and salt as stiff as you can. Set a warm place to rise, knead again, adding as little flour as possible. Let it raise again, and then put it into your pins, making them half full. When the loaves have risen to the top of the pins, bake them to [illegible].

A Boston paper recently contained the following brief local item: About ten o'clock on Sunday morning, four young men were found playing cards in their boarding house and taken into custody.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF SPAIN.

Emilio Castelar, the new President of the Spanish Republic, is probably as well known to Americans as any of his compatriots. He is still in the prime of life, and in the full possession of his most vigorous faculties. His contributions to literature mark him as one of the most brilliant writers of the age, his special field being political literature. The series of articles from his pen, entitled "The Republican Movement in Europe," now running through Harpers' Magazine, presents the most comprehensive review of the struggles of the revolutionists of that continent that has ever appeared in an American publication, and their style stamps him as one of the most vigorous thinkers of this wonderful era in the world's history. Whether he will prove equal to the task of putting his theories into practice remains to be seen

THE total valuation of the property in the State, as returned to the Auditors office, is nearly twelve hundred million dollars. Railway property is assessed at a trifle over eighty millions. There are, in the State nearly a million horses, two million cattle, a hundred thousand mules and asses, eleven hundred thousand sheep and three and a half million hogs. The number of acres under cultivation is about fifteen millions, of which over seven millions are in corn and over three millions in wheat.

PROF. Wise expects to start on his balloon expedition across the Atlantic about next Wednesday. His balloon is rapidly approaching completion, and all arrangements are nearly perfected. The idea of taking along a small sattellite balloon, as a "tender" for the supply of extra gas, has been abandoned. It was only a fanciful design of some lesser aeronauts, and one which Prof. Wise never seriously entertained Whiteside was the first county in this state to organize farmers' granges, and has more of them than any other county in the State. As an indication of how the genuine "farmers' movement" of Illinois is going politically, we may merely cite the fact that at a consultation of the Whiteside county Grangers on Saturday last, it was resolved not to follow the political "new party" jack-o'-lantern which the Democratic and "Liberal" schemers are just now engaged in concocting. The farmers of Illinois as a rule, are Republicans, and they will look to the Republican party, and not in vain, to correct their grievances. We believe the Republican party can safely be relied upon as an agency of anti-monopoly. At all events, it is very evident that the Grangers of the Republican county of Whiteside are firm in that faith.

THE falling off in the export of iron from England during the first seven months of the year 1873 was about 20 per cent. Thus up to July 31, 1872, the export of rails to all countries was 532,605, while for the same period this year it was only 425,550, a decrease of 107,055 tons. This was the result of an increase to some countries deducted from a heavier decrease to others.—Thus the United States took 165,923 tons less, while British America, Brazil, Peru and Egypt also fell off—Peru the most. Russia, Sweden and Germany, on the other hand, took notably large quantities. Pig-iron exported to the United States from England also decreased in about the same ratio or 50 per cent. The first seven months of 1872 brought up 141,823 tons; the corresponding period in 1873 only 71,168.—New York Times.

The opening of the Western Union Telegraph lines to Sault Ste. Marie today was the occasion of the following telegram from the canal agent there to Gov. Bagley, of Michigan: "The outlet of the Father of Waters to millions of lower lakes, we greet you through the wires. The completion of this line adds an important link to the great chain of telegraphy established by the Western Union Telegraph Company.

THE NEW REPUBLICAN OFFICE.

A WORD OR TWO ABOUT ITS CONSTRUCTION.

A Stream of Visitors.

We have a faint suspicion that most of the readers of the REPUBLICAN learned some time ago that a new and commodious building was in course of erection for the use of its publishers, and those who have been among our daily readers have doubtless often wished for its completion, just so as to have all mention of it left out of the paper, if for no other reason. To such we have only to say that the building of a house expressly for a printing office is enough of a novelty in Decatur to justify frequent mention of the fact, especially at a time when there is such a dearth of items as has existed for the past two or three months, but now that it is completed we promise those who have experienced a surfeit of "REPUBLICAN office" to dismiss the subject with this one general description of the building and its contents.

The contract for the erection of the building was entered into on the 13th of May last, but it was not until the last week in June that the first brick was laid. The edifice is 61 feet in depth by 20 feet in width, and is two stories in heighth, with a neat front ornamented with Frear stone trimmings. On the first floor is an office sixteen feet in depth, occupying the front portion of this story, in the rear of which is a commodious press room, well lighted and ventilated. The second floor is used as a composing room, and is reached by a stairway from the press room. The composing room is probably one of the best apartments of its kind to be found anywhere, being most admirably lighted and ventilated. Any description of the new building would be incomplete that did not mention the names of the mechanics by whose skill and labor it was erected. The brickwork was done by Michael Troutman, the carpentering by D. C. Shockley, the plastering by P. H. Miller, the painting by M. A. Myer, the calcimining by Capt. James M. Warren, and the plumbing and gas fitting by H. Mueller.

But as the clothes do not make the man, so the building in which the printing is executed does not of itself indicate the facilities of the establishment for work. Therefore a brief description of the machinery and appliances of our new office is necessary to show the public how well prepared we are to fill all orders for printing. Commencing with the composing room the visitor will find six double stands for newspaper work. Each of these stands contains two pairs of cases, so that the six will accommodate twelve compositors. The display and advertising cases near by number twenty-five, each one of which contains from one to three fonts of type. In the job room are three 16 case cabinets,—all filled with the most costly styles of type—six double stands, about twenty-five cases of job type, besides twenty two fonts of wood type and six fonts of heavy metal type arranged on racks, several cases of labor-saving brass rule, leads, slugs, and metal furniture, racks for stereotype and electrotype cuts, reglets, wood furniture, etc. In this room are also eight marble imposing stones, standing galleys, galley racks and other necessary appliances of the trade, together with a good Washington hand press, which is used for taking proofs, &c. The supply of type in both news and job rooms comprises 147 different styles or kinds. This enumeration, of course, must not be confounded with the different sizes of type, for of these there are not nearly so many, nor with the number of fonts, for of many styles there are several fonts, but it is merely intended to indicate to the reader the great variety of type in the office.

Descending to the press room the first thing that will strike the eye is the steam engine, which occupies the northwest corner of the room It was manufactured by Peter Walrath, Chittenango, N. Y., is of the capacity of 4 horse power, and will run all the machinery of the office with 20 pounds of steam. Engineers who have examined it since it was set up all agree that it is a model of convenience and that no engine could be better adapted to our purpose. On the opposite side of the room are two job presses, of the well-known "Degener" patent, known as quarter and eighth medium respectively. These presses are intended for all kinds of card, bill head and circular work, and for beauty and clearness of impression they cannot be excelled. Next to them, and occupying the centre of the room, stands the Taylor Country Drum Cylinder, used for newspaper work exclusively. This press was purchased over five years ago, and has been run by hand power ever since. Its superior as a newspaper press cannot be found anywhere. By hand power it can be run at the rate of from 900 to 1000 impressions per hour; by steam it can be run up as high as 1500 per hour. Coming towards the front of the room we see the new press just put up one of Campbell's celebrated Cylinder folders. This press will take on an 8 page book form, and is not only a very good press, but a very fast one as well. We have not yet had time to test all its qualities, but have learned enough about it to know that it will prove a very valuable acquisition to our facilities. This completes the list of presses. The shafting, both main and counter, was put up by Burroughs & Co., Messrs. John Fitzgerald and A. F. Bowman doing the work. Messrs. Albert Jones and —— Henry also assisted in setting up the machinery. In this room is also a paper cutter, of the Anson Hardy pattern, besides closets for stock, appliances for wetting paper, mailing and folding tables, wash sink, etc.

In front of the press room is the business and editorial office, supplied with counter, desks, chairs and other furniture. The counter and railing, which are of a most neat and tasteful design, were built of ash with walnut ornaments, were made by Messrs. Wm. Lintner & Co., and are much admired by all visitors. A door behind the counter opens into a small private office—a convenience which every newspaper man will appreciate, and which, indeed, is more of a necessity than a convenience. This, we believe, completes our description of the building. If any of our readers think it insufficient let them come and see for themselves. We shall always be happy to show callers through the office, and the invitation to "come and see us" is hereby made perpetual.

THE OPENING.

Knowing that the people generally like to look at whatever is new, the office was thrown open last evening, and everybody invited to come and see it. From seven to half past nine o'clock a constant stream of men, women and children poured into, through and out of the office, the rooms being crowded all the time. The four presses were kept in operation, the compositors were at work, and every facility was given for visitors to examine into the workings of the office. More than five hundred people called during the course of the evening, and all seemed highly gratified with what they saw. Many were kept away by fears of a crowd, and to such an invitation is extended to call at any time.

"O, HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS FROM MAINE ?"

The State Gone Republican, as Usual.

Col. Harper's Defalcation Investigated.

THE SPRINGFIEED STRIKE.

Panic on Wall Street.

BANDITTI IN MEXICO.

SPRINGFIELD, September 8.—The strike at the rolling mill still continues. Both strikers and the "struck" are firm, and there is no encouraging prospect of resumption of work very soon.

The investigation of the books and affairs of the office of collector of this district has been conducted with closed doors, under the supervision of Gen. B. M. Sweet, Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue, D. W. Munn, Supervisor of Revenue; Major Bluford Wilson, United States District Attorney, and a large number of United States officials, including deputy collectors, of the various counties in the District. There are so many rumors and conflicting stories, some of which implicate others, that it would be unfair to give currency to them until the official results are known.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—A party of bandits, headed by Albert O. Garcia, are committing depredations on the roads near Mier and Guerrero. Garcia and his followers were lately stealing cattle in Texas, and being too hotly pursued by United States cavalry, returned to Mexico, where he was appointed a custom officer. On losing his place, and fearing to return to America to steal cattle, he turned a Mexican highwayman. The Vox Publico of this city states that Garcia is an American, and claims that reparation should be demanded for his depredations. The Mexican authorities, however, recently refused to extradite him for robberies committed in Texas, on the ground that he was a Mexican citizen.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—At mass meeting yesterday in St. Peter's church Father O'Farrall, alluding to the dedication of his parochial school in the afternoon, said the public school system was a failure. He believed that eventually the state must either make all education voluntary and without taxation, each denomination supporting its own schools, or else, if taxes were raised for educational purposes, each party must receive a fair share. At dedicatory services in the afternoon the same clergyman said he wished it understood that in this matter priests and people went together It had been charged that they had entered into a conspiracy, every man woman and child of them, and they made no secret of it. They did not deny that they protested against supplying schools to which Catholic children could not go just as they would protest against being forced to attend a state church. They claimed, as American citizens, the privilege of educating their children as they please.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Panic and disaster is predicted for Wall street by the sensation mongers who made their appearance to-day in this form Two individuals not connected with Wall street are short of cash about $100,000, and may possibly have to get some accommodation to meet their notes due the latter part of the week. To continue the excitement a report was started that a western railroad had gone to protest on its paper, but this was officially denied.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., September 8. The schooner Abbie Bradford, at this port from Hudson's Bay, reports the loss of two new Bedford whalers, and brings home a portion of the crew of one of them. The particulars are as follows. On the 14th of September, 1872, the bark Oreiay Taft at anchor near Marble Island, Hudson's Bay, parted her cables and went ashore high and dry and cannot be got off. On the 19th of October following the bark Ansel Gibbs went ashore at the same place and went to pieces. The Oreiay Taft had no oil, but the Ansel Gibbs had 550 barrels of whale oil and 11,600 pounds of whalebone, most of which was lost. No men were lost at the time of the wrecks, but both crews were obliged to live on the island until the 2d of August last. From the exposure and the lack of proper food, they were attacked by scurvy. The winter was fearfully cold, being the most severe for a number of years, so that the natives of the island died by scores, and the wretched crew suffered exceedingly. Ten of the crew of the Ansel Gibbs and four of the crew of Oreiay Taft died. Among the dead of the crew of the Ansel Gibbs is Murray D. McConnell, of Jacksonville, Ill. The crew of the Oreiay Taft and three of Anson Gibbs will come home by another vessel.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8—The officials of the American Express Company here state that there is no truth whatever in the story of a robbery by one of their messengers of $50,000, and his subsequent arrest with the funds in his possession. The story came directly from the detective who claimed to have made the arrest, and of course was supposed to be true when telegraphed from here. The object of the detective in manufacturing the story is not clear.

Under Sheriff Nicholson, of Ottawa, Canada, arrived here to-day with a subpœna for George W. McMullen, witness before the Royal Commission, now in session in Ottawa, investigating the Canadian Pacific Railroad affair. But though the officer proposed to pay McMullen's expenses, he refused the offer, and will pay no attention to the subpœna This is the statement of Nicholson.

MADRID, September 8.—The new Ministry is announced as follows:

Senor Castelar, President, without portfolio; Senor Carvajal, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Senor Berges, Minister of Justice; Senor Rodregal, Minister of Finance; Senor Cerverac, Minister of Public Works; Lieutenant General Sanchez Bregna, Minister of War; Senor Oneiro, Minister of Marine; Senor Maisonave, Minister of Interior; Senor Bolor, Minister of Colonies.

President Castelar has determined to make a supreme effort to crush the Carlist and Intransigente insurrections. He has decided to call into active service 150,000 of the army reserves and 500,000 militia. He believes that with this force it will be possible to establish order in the country before spring.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept 8, 9:15 p. m —Sixty-three towns give Dingley 13,864, Titcomb 9,125, Williams 488, being a majority of 4,251 for Dingley.—Lost year Perham received 22,044, Kimball 16,066, being a majority of 5,978 for Perham. Net loss 1,727.—The aggregate of the vote this year is 23,477, last year 38,110. This indicates a majority of about 12,000 on a vote of about 80,000.

CONSUMPTION!

AND ITS CURE!

Victims of this awful disease are found in every neighborhood, in almost every house. For them and for their friends, we have tidings of good cheer and hope—the announcement of a most important discovery, firmly based upon common sense and reason, by which the terrible malady is positively controlled, and its victims are restored to health.

WILSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil

Is not a secret empirical nostrum. It is a happy combination of two remedies known to physicians everywhere as the best means of combating consumption. This combination is Mr. Wilson's discovery, and is founded upon the following

SOUND REASONING.

Consumption is decay. Soothing, expectorant remedies are only useful as palliatives, they do not reach the cause—they do not stop the decay. Tonic medicines strengthen the life forces and prolong the battle, but the decay goes steadily on, and sooner or later the victim must yield. Climatic changes are sometimes good, but they seldom wholly cure. In short, the very first thing to be done is to STOP THE DECAY, then apply the restorative, tonic and strength giving treatment. Think a moment. The Lungs are decaying—tubercles, ulcerations cavities and deposits of poisonous matter are now forming. The circulation carries this poison all over the body. Wasting, loss of appetite, emaciation, night sweats, and all the terrible symptoms appear; Is it worth while to doctor the symptoms, which are merely the results, while the decay, which is the cause, is eating up the life springs? These two things are well known by the best physicians:

1st, Carbolic acid positively arrest. Decay. It is the most powerful antiseptic in the known world. Even dead bodies are preserved by it. Entering into the circulation, it at once grapples with corruption, and decay ceases. It purifies the sources of disease.

2d, Cod Liver Oil is Nature's best assistant in resisting Consumption. It is at once a food, a tonic, a purifier, and a healer. It braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the wasted system, and enables nature to regain her foothold. For these purposes nothing can compare with Cod Liver Oil.—This is the theory of

CARBOLATED COD LIVER OIL,

As described fully in the inventor's circular, which will be mailed, upon application, to any address.

We cannot afford space to tell the whole story here, or to give the numerous certificates from eminent physicians and well known citizens testifying to the absolutely wonderful results flowing from this great discovery. Suffice it to say, it is curing thousands who supposed themselves to be at death's door.

Willson's Carbolated Oil is scientifically prepared with the purest Carbolic Acid, so combined as to be entirely harmless, with from the celebrated fisheries at Alesund (Norway) pronounced by physicians the most delicate, efficient Cod Liver Oil in the world.

It is easily taken, tolerated by the weakest stomachs, digests readily, never becomes rancid, and is almost entirely free from the usual disagreeable characteristics of Cod Liver Oil.

For every use of Cod Liver Oil Mr. Willson's discovery is of the greatest value.

For the safe internal administration of Carbolic Acid, Mr. Willson's method of combining it with Cod Liver Oil is absolutely necessary.

WILLSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil!

Is a Specific and Radical Cure for

CONSUMPTION

And Scrofulous Diseases.

Be sure to get the name, "Willson's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil." It comes in large wedge-shaped bottles, bearing the inventor's signature, and is sold by the best druggists.

Prepared by J. H. WILLSON, St John st., New York.

Sold by all druggists.

Official City and County Paper.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...The celebrated Yarmouth Corn at IMBODEN'S.

...El Rifle cigars at Gardner's drug store. The people will have them.

...California Wine Bitters at Armstrong & Brown's. Beat the world for regulating the stomach and bowels.

...John W. Hartley is still on hand at his usual place of business on Prairie street, and has a full stock of goods in his line of trade. Fruit and vegetables of every variety; also fresh eggs and butter. Call in and get your money's worth.

...Geo. F. Wessels is still in receipt of large invoices of new goods daily. Full assortment of fall goods on hand. What remains of his summer stock he is selling below cost to make room for the large lots of new goods that are coming in. Give him a call. Custom work made to order by best of workmen.

...Senator Oglesby goes to Ohio next week to give the Republicans of that state a lift in the prosecution of the present campaign. The Senator will do our neighbors effective service, and though their success is sure without any assistance from abroad, they will experience great satisfaction in listening to the stirring speeches of our eloquent townsman.

...Charles P. Housam left on the 10 o'clock train last night for Piqua, Ohio, whither he was summoned by a telegram announcing the death of his mother, which occurred at that place yesterday, after a very lingering illness. Mr. H. will return about the last of the week.

...The Logan county fair comes off at Lincoln this week. The Lincoln folks always get up a good fair, and with the fine weather they are having, they will doubtless have a big rush. Several of our people will be going over during the week.

...We are now fairly set up for "housekeeping," and can wait upon our customers more to our mind than was the case in the confusion of getting settled. Come round, friends, and see us. Your job printing will be done without any delay, and in a thoroughly workmanlike manner.

...A good many people labor under a delusion about those big gilt buckles the ladies wear just above their bustles. It is generally believed that they are fastened on in that position, and the wonder is how the damsels can reach around to 'em. But they don't do it in that way. They hitch the buckle in front, they get their big brother or some other chap with a well-developed muscle, to twist the belt around so that the buckle comes over the bustle aforesaid—then they are ready for conquest.

...The Piatt county agricultural society has announced its annual fair, to commence Oct. 1st, and continue four days. Hon. Schuyler Colfax, will deliver the annual address, on Friday, the 3d day of the fair.

...If the present generation of children is the hope of the nation, it will be as well preserved by the smoking process as a side of bacon; for nearly every boy of ten years old and upward, puffs his cigar, and some of the girls are learning.

...Fall plowing is being pushed vigorously by the farmers of our county, notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of the ground, owing to continued drought. There seems to be a determination to make a thorough trial of the matter of raising winter wheat, and a larger breadth will be sown in the county this year than before. If winter wheat can be successfully raised it will take the place of corn to a great extent.

...Young indulgents in the first lessons of love, are becoming numerous, and owing to numbers are becoming bold. A newspaper man who seeks items diligently these evenings, frequently meets with a couple who are lost to all thoughts of earthly affairs, being engaged in those thoughts of love. We mention no names at present, but urge upon the candidates for matrimonial felicity, more secrecy.

...We are glad to say that we have no new cases of sudden sickness to report today, and aside from some few cases of fever peculiar to this season of the year, the sanitary condition of the city is highly satisfactory. We hope this state of affairs will continue, and it will be likely to if people take care of themselves. It should be borne in mind that persons given to excesses of any kind, are much more liable to bowel complaint and other summer troubles than persons of temperate habits and regular modes of living.

A Life Partner.—By reference to our marriage notices our readers will observe that Frank Haines has taken a partner in the bill posting business. At about 7½ o'clock last evening a group of about twenty friends and acquaintances of the high contracting parties assembled at the residence of I. D. Jennings, Esq., Sheriff of the county, to witness the marriage of Miss Mollie Jennings to Frank W. Haines, our city bill poster. Valuable presents were presented to both bride and groom.—Among these was a splendid gold watch and chain presented to the bride by the groom. Among the presents from friends were gold and silver napkin rings, china tea set, toilet vases, &c.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room where a supper of the first order was served, after which the newly married couple accompanied by several friends made their way to the depot.

The happy couple left on the 10:30 train last night for a bridal tour through Virginia and Maryland to be gone about six weeks.

It was evidently Frank's intention to keep the matter a little shady until after he was fairly on his journey. But "murder will out," and early in the evening the boys got up a party of twenty-five or thirty and were at the depot to offer their congratulations. The whole thing was a very agreeable affair, and the young people take with them the best wishes of hosts of friends.

A bountiful supply of the bride's cake was received by the REPUBLICAN corps this morning, for which thanks and best wishes are tendered.

Grand Temperance Rally and Picnic.—There will be a grand temperance picnic at Grove City, on the line of the St. Louis railroad on to-morrow. Dr. Wm. Ross has engaged to be present and address the meeting, both forenoon and afternoon. The addresses of this eloquent champion of the temperance cause will richly repay any who may attend. An earnest invitation is extended to all the friends of temperance in this city and county to attend.

Personal.—J. M. Dawson, Esq., of Mt. Gilead, has moved to town, and taken up his residence on West William street. Mr. Dawson will be a valuable acquisition to our city, and we give him a cordial welcome. He comes to give his children the benefit of our city schools, of which we are all so justly proud.

Police Record.—Charles and Lucretia Bloom were before Justice Misner last evening charged with indecent exposure of person. The court imposed a fine of five dollars upon each.

Large Attendance.—The public schools opened yesterday with full rooms. In the 1st ward two rooms have been added to the school house during the vacation, one of which is already occupied, and the other will be needed to accommodate the large number of children in that ward.

Our Front View.—From our sanctum we can look square across the way, to the door of the room in which our county offices are. At this door when weather is propitious, quite early in the morning gather the hard-working men of our city. Here they roll up their sleeves and pitch in with an earnestness and activity truly commendable. It is astonishing to see how well they bear up under their heavy work so constantly prosecuted. Instead of being bent and lean as we might expect them to be from their severe and continuous labor, their forms are for the most part erect and rotund, and their faces exhibit but few marks of the care and anxiety they must daily experience while toiling and sweating for their daily bread. To exhibit these signs of physical vigor under the circumstances proves them to be men of iron constitution.

ALDERMAN HARDY is a printer, as well as a legislator and merchant. Being "with us in the movement" last evening, he kindly assisted to show the people how printing was done. The following is the result of his work at the case, and is also a very fair job of off-hand editing, every word of which we are compelled to endorse:

OPENING.—The grand opening at this Office last night was a decided success, hundreds of people coming and going continually every one seemed pleased and delighted in witnessing the working of the beautiful Steam Engine, running four Presses at a time. This being the first Steam Power used in a Printing Office in Decatur, was quite a novelty to those that come to see the sights. Call again, we are always glad to see our friends.

...Miss M. E. Gruenendike will please accept our thanks for the magnificent boquet presented us last evening.

...Hon. J. A. Race and his daughter left on the noon train to day for a visit to Ohio. During their absence they will "take in" the Cincinnati Exposition.

...The regular September term of the Board of Supervisors began this morning.

...Mrs. L. Burrows and family have returned from their summer trip to the East. We learn that Mr. Burrows will sail from Liverpool for home to morrow, in the steamer Idaho, of the Guion line.

...The Paris & Decatur Railroad Co. is progressing slowly with the new depot building, near Priest's mill.

...The sidewalk on the west side of North Water street is blockaded while the new bank building is put in order. A cellar is being excavated under the walk, and the inside of the building is being fitted up with fine counters and other fixtures and furniture adapted to the banking business.

Our Circulation.—Our paper now goes regularly to nearly every state in the Union, and to Canada. This of course makes it valuable as an advertising medium. Having got fairly settled in our new quarters, we shall spare no pains to give our readers a live paper, that will be sought after, not only on account of its large line of advertisements, but for its valuable reading matter. Our circulation of both Daily and Weekly is rapidly increasing, without any effort in that direction by way of solicitors or through canvassers. We will take the liberty to call the attention of our citizens in a general way to the merits of our sheet. We feel confident that they will give us the credit of making a good paper, and we shall be pleased to receive their subscriptions.

Strayed or Stolen from the pasture of the subscriber, on night of the 6th instant, a Sorrel Horse, 6 years old, with a small blaze in the face; unshod; lean in flesh and quite shy or skittish. A liberal reward will be given for the return or information that shall lead to the recovery of the horse.

A. T. HILL.

Decatur, Ill., Sept. 9, '73.

Notice to Water Takers.—The water will be shut off from the mains this evening from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Quick Time.—The party of railroad officials who passed through our city last week to St. Louis, on their return trip made the distance from St. Louis to Toledo, 432 miles, in nine hours and a half, making stops at every crossing, and taking about half an hour here for breakfast.

Change of Base.—Mr. J. P. Marsh has removed his stock of boots and shoes to Mrs. Hickman's old stand, in opera block, and Mrs. Hickman takes charge of Millinery rooms for Kern & Robeson, over their dry goods store.

Sudden Death.—We learn that Capt. Martin Ryan, of Niantic, died suddenly last night, but we have no particulars.

Harper's Magazine

Notices of the Press

The ever increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudice or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

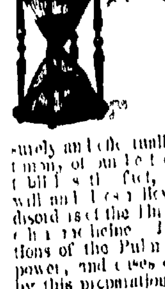
Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.



Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power, and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

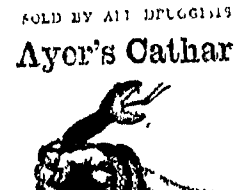
PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.,

Practical and Analytical Chemists

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,



For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
